Title: Emotion coaching

Audience: This course is for SENCOs, teachers, TAs and pastoral staff

Description: Emotion coaching is an effective approach to supporting pupils to become more aware of their feelings and manage moments of heightened emotion and resulting behaviour. It guides and teaches pupils about more effective responses. This training will provide adults with a structured approach, giving confidence to manage pupils' emotions and behaviour. This also involves a TEAMS follow up session to discuss its use, progress, share experiences and ask questions.

Objectives: By the end of this course, you will learn:

- How to support children to identify and express their emotions in a positive form.
- What emotion coaching is
- How emotion coaching work in relation to our brains and bodies
- The stages of emotion coaching
- Using emotion coaching with pupils and parents / carers

- Title: How to support children who are not yet talking
- Audience: This course is for EY and KS1 school teaching and pastoral staff.
- Description: This two half-a-day training course has been designed by NHS Paediatric Speech and Language Therapists and aims to provide information on how to support children in your setting who are not yet speaking. The course looks into supportive methods which can be applied in your setting, how to engage with the child's wider network and alternative methods of communication along with how to reach out for additional support. This is an interactive course where discussions of good practice and working collaboratively to share ideas and concerns are encouraged. Upon completion you should have a better understanding of communication development, reasons that children may be having difficulty and should feel more confident in applying strategies to support a child who isn't yet speaking.
- Objectives: By the end of this course, you will:
- develop an understanding of best practice to support children who are not yet speaking
  - develop an understanding of alternative methods of communication available to support children who are not yet speaking
  - build awareness and knowledge of available resources to access and to recommend to a child's family
